EASTER

I remember when I was a little fellow at Sunday School the Easter story was the one that caused me to marvel more than any other lesson of the year. We had illustrated charts and the picture of an angel sitting in the empty tomb is as vivid today as it was those many years ago. The simple words that were spoken made a deep impression. The angel said, "He is not here. He is risen." A little later the risen Lord was shown talking to the two Marys in the garden. The whole thing was told so graphically and so simply that the smallest child could understand.

The simple things in the life of the great Teacher of Nazareth are the things that have caused so many people to take up His cross and follow after Him. They have then found that His cross is easy and the burden light for His has always been a leadership of love.

Tomorrow we celebrate the Eastertide, which is simply the renewal of our faith in Christ, and all that He stands for. As we acknowledge our belief in His resurrection and life after death, we are simply expressing our faith in God and a future existence.

THE ELECTION

The City election, Monday, went over very quietly and about a hundred thirty people took the trouble to go to the polls to vote. Personally we feel that this was an exhibition of mighty poor citizenship. We know that there was no contest and that we were re-electing a set of officials who had given good service but there should have been enough interest manifested to show these people that they are appreciated.

The remuneration they receive can not be mentioned as a salary. Night after night they leave their homes and spend from three to four hours over problems that belong to all of the people. They try to make the town a good home community. They try to protect our interests. They endeavor to beautify the place and keep it attractive, and out of some two thousand voters, one hundred thirty go out and thank them on election day. The schools are trying to teach the children that a good citizen will always vote. The good citizens, however, do not bear out the instructions that are given and so nullify the good work that the teachers are trying to put over.

A good citizen should vote at every election.

THE ATHERTON ELECTION

The election in our neighboring town to the south showed conclusively that the people of Atherton are satisfied with the start that has been made in that community. The trustees were all reelected and will now serve the full terms as designated by law. We are glad that the incumbents will have a chance to work out the problems which were outlined as the reasons for seeking incorporation.

Atherton is one of the most beautiful sections of California. There is not a more wonderful part of this state in which a home can be built. People of means have built there and had expected that they would always have a country place in which they could enjoy life as they wished. Then conditions began to confront them that could be handled only by incorporation. So they incorporated. We do not think that the opposition ticket could have overturned the good works that have been inaugurated but they might have hampered the ideals that have been set up.

Atherton is a good neighbor. We want to see the municipality grow. We want to see it continued as a beautiful home community. There are plenty of other places where business may flourish, so let's wish the board all success in its endeavors to make Atherton the finest residential section of Northern California.

FORMATION OF KIWANIS CLUB PROGRESSING

A number of the business men of Redwood City met last Tuesday at Tony's Cafe for dinner and to further plans for the formation of a Kiwanis Club. These men hold a meeting each week in one of the local restaurants, and have discussed every aspect of the formation of a club. At this meeting the local men were addressed by Fred Chilcotte of Redwood City and Kenneth Spencer of San Francisco, both members of the Kiwanis Club of San Francisco.

A lot of the boys in the political trenches just now are getting covered with dirt while trying to dig themselves in.

When we hear a local man referred to as a "good fellow," we generally wonder whether his wife has the same opinion.

Gas-Wagon Comedy To Open Chautauqua

"Six-Cylinder Love" to Be Presented Here by Elias Day Players.

And now we have the modern play! Not a problem play nor heavy drama, but a rip roaring comedy chuck full of hearty laughs and the best lesson on extravagance ever handed to an American audience. "Six-Cylinder Love" has a new type of villain—a villain that furnishes so much in the line of pleasure and good times that well-meaning families are led into extravagance, bad company and virtual ruin. This low-down is none other than the family automobile—and what that automobile does to two young couples will hit many families squarely between the eyes. The situations are more than funny and keep audiences guessing how they will finally be straightened out. Clever lines, a bit of subtle pathos—climaxes that only a clever playwright such as William Anthony McGuire could develop—all go to make up the comedy success which played 54 successive weeks in New York.

NOW IS THE TIME

We have often in the past advocated the cutting of Broadway through the barrier along Main street, and opening up the other side of town. This is a matter in which we are far from being alone, as every resident of Redwood City, who understands the situation and has a regard for the future progress and harmonious development of the town, must favor this move. Sooner or later Broadway will be extended across Main street, the territory on the other side of Main street will be developed, and the business district, which is now blocked by the unbroken wall of buildings, will grow.

The only question the citizens of Redwood City must consider is—Is this the proper time to buy the right of way for Broadway, through the intervening property, or would it be better to wait until later? On Wednesday night a fire burned the rear portion of the building, which, more than any other blocks the opening through Broadway. That building has been depreciated by the fire, and a large amount of money will have to be spent now if it is renovated. Why should not the town take advantage of this accident and depreciation of value of the building. If bought before the owner spends several thousand dollars in repairs, the town should get the property several thousand dollars cheaper than if it waits until after the burned portion of the building is rebuilt.

It stands to reason that by buying this property now, a saving will be effected to the town of Redwood City and to the taxpayers. Is Redwood City ready to take this action? The town government will buy the property if it knows that the people want it. Are the people of Redwood City ready to express themselves? Here is your chance? If you think that in order to allow for the proper expansion of the business district, and the extension of Broadway to join the east side highway, when that is completed, and to provide better facilities for the immense cement plant which is being built east of town, that the Wahl building should be purchased; if you desire to have the expense of that purchase to be as small as possible, sign the attached coupon and send it to the editor. This is merely an expression of opinion and entails no responsibility whatever.

BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION DISTRIBUTES $10,000

Series No. 89 of the San Mateo County Building and Loan Association reached its matured value of $200 per share on April 10, when the sum of $16,000 became payable to the shareholders in said series. The investors receiving their money by calling at the association's office at 80 Broadway.

The shareholders are privileged to withdraw the value of their shares in cash or allow the same to remain on deposit with the Association for which interest bearing certificates of investment at 6 per cent, payable semi-annually, are issued, a safe and profitable form of investment. The association also accepts deposits for which a like rate of interest is paid.

There is a good demand for loans from the association, principally for the erection of new homes, mostly in Redwood City and vicinity. Investors with the association are thus aiding the improvement and up-building of the peninsula through a local institution and also relieving the shortage of homes, which has been a very serious condition.

Series No. 126 was started on March 1st, and investments are encouraging. Another series will start June 1st.

Information regarding investments and loans on easy monthly payments may be obtained at the office of the association, Apr. 19 24

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Men's Suits at $5 and up at Einsteins.

Walter Knight is a trifle late in introducing his horseless carriage, as another party in town has one in full operation. It may be seen every day on the streets delivering the staff of life.

Charles C. Houghs, formerly of Redwood City, was appointed Tuesday by the board of education of Alameda, superintendent of schools at a salary of $175 per month. He was the unanimous choice of the board. Mr. Houghs has been principal of the Manual school of that place since 1896, and his promotion is due solely to his own efforts.

The annual flower show, for the benefit of the free kindergarten, will be held in Germania hall Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of next week.

Oil prospectors have again begun operations on the coast, and Thursday commenced drilling on the Holje place. The surface indications promise a good strike of oil.

The improvements at Stanford University are progressing favorably, and work of construction will soon begin on the memorial arch, which will cost about $68,000 and will be one of the most striking and artistic structures of the kind in America. Stanford is showing marked evidences of growth and prosperity.

John Nelson met with a painful accident in coming from Halfmoon Bay Sunday on a bicycle. On coming down the grade on this side of the summit he was precipitated to the ground and had his right arm sprained.

John F. Johnston, A. D. Walsh, Will Hanson and Jack Genocchio went over to the Purisima Thursday to try their luck at trout fishing.

ALUMNI EVENING APRIL 21

An excellent opportunity to visit and inspect the new high school will be afforded all alumni and former students of the school on next Monday evening, April 21, when those who desire will meet at the school at 7:30 o'clock to make a tour of the building. Several members of the faculty, all "old timers" and all well known to the old "grads" will be on hand to greet the alumni and show them about the building.

A few short talks will be given in the Little Theatre and then refreshments will be in order in the cafeteria. A piano will be in the cafeteria, school songs will be sung and a general atmosphere of good-fellowship and reunion will prevail.

The tired business man gets that way by fighting off people who try all day long to sell him something he doesn't want.

MARIE PROVOST IS STAR IN PICTURE

Role in "The Marriage Circle" Transforms Appealing Actress

For the first time in her many years of screen acting, Marie Provost, the Warner Brothers film star, is playing her first serious part in the Ernest Lubitsch production, "The Marriage Circle." Heretofore, Miss Provost has been cast as the gay, the carefree, the athlete, motorist, swimmer, the flapper, everything which would typify gaiety and frivolity. Despite the fact that Marie's dreams of portraying a significant but solemn role have been realized, she frak-ly admits that when it was first offered to her by Lubitsch she was terribly frightened. Deep down in her heart she felt she could never appear serious on the screen. She was given the script of "The Marriage Circle" to read and became doubly convinced that she could never play the part.

Lubitsch, however, insisted that Marie would give a marvelous performance, that she had the ability to do the things he demanded, and that she was the type for his picture. Considerable argument ensued, and finally Marie agreed to go on probation. She made good in the eyes of Lubitsch, although she herself didn't think so after the first few days.

"Mr. Lubitsch's way of directing is so different," said Marie. "All he wanted me to do was to be natural, just as in real life. After reading the script of "The Marriage Circle" I was a bit discouraged and thought I could never play the part of Mizzi, the society woman of Vienna, for which I had been cast.

"Flippant flappers, fresh young things in comedies and melodramatic roles were all I had ever played, and ever since I came to the Warner Brothers, I have only played unsophisticated girls who were far removed from the fashionable, cultured milieu, depicted on "The Marriage Circle."

"Here I was to play the part of Mizzi, twenty-five-year-old wife of Professor Joseph Stock, a woman who knows the ways of the world, who loves life and its luxuries, a woman who is tied to a husband who has no sympathy with her fancies and caprices.

Marie Provost has one of the leading roles in this Warner Brothers Classic of the Screen. Others in the cast are Florence Vidor, Monte Blue, Adolphe Menjou, Harvey Myers and Creighton Hale. These names are guarantees of distinctive acting, just as the name of Mr. Lubitsch is a guarantee for a wonderful evening of entertainment.

"The Marriage Circle" will be featured at the Sequoia Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, April 21 and 22.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

John Buckley, a native of County Kerry, Ireland, was killed in San Francisco on Monday last in falling from a truck. He was a brother of Frank Buckley of Menlo Park and had resided in this state for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Schwabacher have closed their city house and have opened their pretty Menlo Park home. The Schwabachers have many friends and entertainers.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton have opened their estate on the sloping foothills back of Atherton, where they will entertain considerably during the season.

Menlo Parlor N. S. G. W. at a recent meeting elected Joseph Nash a delegate to the grand parlor to be held at Sacramento shortly. M. F. X. Kavanaugh was chosen alternate.

The Woman's Exchange, Mrs. Kurtz, proprietor, offers today a large assortment of home-made cakes and pies, bread, cookies and salads. Anyone who tries her cooking will always duplicate their orders. Try her delicious home-made bread and rolls.

C. W. Smith, well-known resident of Menlo Park and San Francisco, passed away at his home in San Francisco last Saturday following an illness of four months, although for a number of years he had been a martyr to rheumatism. Mr. Smith was president of the Coffin-Redding Company, wholesale druggists. Smith was born in Lancaster, Pa., on March 29, 1847, and at the age of 18 came to San Francisco by way of Cape Horn, in one of the small vessels of that period. He entered the employ of the Redding Drug Company in 1865, soon after his arrival in San Francisco, and has remained with that firm ever since, having been president of the company for the past several years.

The only organization or lodge that Smith was a member of was the Pacific Union Club of San Francisco. "The Peppers" on Santa Cruz avenue was the country home of Mr. Smith for many years. His summers were spent happily in that hospitable and delightful place. Mr. Smith loved his friends and neighbors, and nothing gave him more pleasure than doing something for someone. He was a friend of his home town, always being delighted to confer favors upon people of the community. None knew him but to love and admire him. Mr. Smith began as a poor boy with the Redding Company, but by hard work and attention to duty, he steadily rose until he became president of the concern. His wealth and position did not turn his head. He was always the same, pleasant, congenial and a thoroughly democratic American who could be approached at any time by the plebeian or proletarian. They were just as welcome as the aristocrat or financier. His memory will long be cherished by his wide circle of friends in the state.

In honor of the birthday anniversary of Judge Charles Shurtliff, Judge and Mrs. Shurtliff entertained at a Spanish party a few evenings ago, at their home in Menlo Park. There were twelve guests who came in Spanish costumes, and the tango featured among the dances. Judge Shurtliff, himself appeared in the role of Rudolph Valentino and Mrs. Shurtliff was charming as a Spanish queen.

Mrs. Shurtliff, who was quite ill some months ago has fully recovered and is now able to receive her many friends.

The freight house of the Southern Pacific Company was broken into some time Tuesday night and two trunks containing valuable wearing apparel and personal effects belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Hopkins stolen. One of the trunks was found near the gate house, rifled of its contents. Railroad detectives were soon at the scene of the robbery and at once declared it to be an inside job. They contend that trunks were followed from San Francisco by some person or persons who knew they were to be shipped on Tuesday. The detectives have several under suspicion and arrests may be made shortly. One of the trunks contained a valuable seal skin coat worth $1,000. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, who planned coming to Menlo Park shipped the greater part of their effects by an automobile truck but could not get the trunks on the machine and decided to send them by freight. A number of years ago the Hopkins shipped several trunks here by freight and on the night of their arrival were robbed of valuable contents valued at several thousand dollars.

Mr. Swain, proprietor of the Menlo Park Garage, has disposed of his business to Mr. Cooper, an experienced automobile man of Escalon, who has been appointed local agent for the Ford Automobile. Mr. Cooper is looking for a residence for his family. Mr. Cooper comes to Menlo Park highly recommended.

H. A. Chandler, proprietor of the Menlo Groceries, has sold the business to Mr. Hinman of Redwood City, but formerly of Sacramento. Mr. Chandler will remain in Menlo Park for some time before launching into any other enterprise. The Chandlers made many friends while here who regret to see them retire from business. Mr. Hinman is an experienced grocer. He promises good service and right prices.

D. A. Merz, the local poet, entertained at his pretty home on Laurel avenue Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart of Redwood City, Mr. and Mrs. Seelbinder and young son of Los Angeles, and Arthur Baggenat of Menlo Park. All had an enjoyable time.

Thomas Gardiner, a former Menlo Park young man and for a number of years head of the moonshiner department of the Internal Revenue office in San Francisco, has resigned his position to accept a lucrative place with the Howard Automobile Company, Pacific Coast Agents for the Buick automobiles. The government offered increased salary to remain with the department, but the automobile company offered better inducement. Mr. Gardiner is an expert accountant and has few equals as an income tax compiler. He is a valuable man for the government, but the salary he was receiving was not adequate for the work he was doing.

On Tuesday evening, April 23, Menlo Parlor Number 211, N. D. G. W. will give the first social of the year.

There will be several speakers, and there will be an opportunity to inspect the building and to learn about the work of the school.

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold a round table at the Las Lomas School on Friday evening, April 25, to discuss articles in the Child Welfare magazine. It is hoped that those who have found articles of special interest will be ready to report them for the benefit of others.

LOCAL STORE HOLDS

MOMENTS BARGAIN SALE

One of the most exceptional sales ever staged in Redwood City is now in progress in the Economy store, on Broadway. R. Bomberg, has placed his entire stock in the hands of E. L. Smith of the Western Sales Company, who has made drastic reductions in all lines.

The sale started at 10 o'clock yesterday, and before the time had come to open the doors, the street was crowded in front of the store. Opening the doors was a sign for a mad rush to enter the store and the doors had to be kept closed all morning, only allowing a few to enter at a time and to give them a chance to get out before a new crowd was admitted. Over 1500 persons entered the store between the time it opened and when it was closed at noon. By noon practically all of the goods in the front had been sold and boxes in the rear had to be broken open to supply the demand.

The sale will continue until next Saturday. Valuable bargains are being offered. For prices and further information concerning the goods being sold, the reader is referred to the large ad on page 3.

AUTOISTS WARNE AGAINST

ILLEGAL HEAD LIGHTS

The State Motor Vehicle Department announced this week that beginning Sunday, a strict watch will be kept in this county by the State traffic squad for improper lights. Motorists with head lamps, rusted reflectors, glaring lights, and other imperfections will be made to correct these defects before being allowed to proceed. Motorists with such defects in their lighting systems will do well to have them corrected before the speed cops notice the fact.

Big Savings
to all Eastern Points

Effective May 22, 1924

Go East this summer. Enjoy the large savings in effect May 22 to September 15, 1924. The fare to Chicago and return, for instance, is but a one-way fare and a tenth. Similar savings to all Eastern points. And the Southern Pacific lines give you three routes to choose from. Go one way, return another. All are amazingly scenic.

By way of New Orleans, thence Northward to your destination or by boat to New York—birth and meals on boat included in your fare. American Canyon Route, by way of the Great Salt Lake Cut-off, Ogden and Salt Lake City. Through the Great Northwest, via Mt. Shasta, Portland, Tacoma and Seattle. Then East by Northern U. S. or Canadian routes.

True Southern Pacific hospitality on all these routes means courteous, willing service—a delightful trip.

Any Southern Pacific Agent will gladly give you all particulars

EVERY WORD IS TRUE

When we, the oldest paper in San Mateo County, say that the most important factor in business success is proper advertising, we are simply emphasizing a fact that has been proved by thousands of men thousands of times.

The confidence of the people of Redwood City in the Times Gazette extends to every advertisement which appears in these pages.

They have learned from experience that every item of news, every bit of advertising which we accept, has been the subject of careful scrutiny on our part. It must pass our test of reliability and honesty before we will accept it. In other words, our acceptance of any advertisement is a guarantee of its worthiness.

We welcome you to our columns if your product is honest, if it has real merit, and if you are a reliable concern. Your advertising will produce because it reaches people who have confidence in us, and through us, in you and your products.
